MAL. 1:3

A photograph showing a person's feet inside a burlap sack, resting on a brown carpet. The sack is made of coarse, woven fabric and is partially open at the top. The person's feet are visible, with the toes and heels resting on the carpet. The lighting is warm and somewhat dim, creating a somber or hidden atmosphere. The text is overlaid on the center of the image.

Romans 1:26-28

For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

1 Corinthians 6:9-10 (NIV)

"Do you not know that the wicked will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor male prostitutes nor homosexual offenders nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God."

Discussion Questions

- Do you agree with the traditional interpretation of Scripture regarding homosexual behavior or do you think the interpretation needs to be modified?
- To what extent should you allow practicing homosexuals to be involved in the life of the church? Is it OK to attend? Is it OK to serve? Is it OK to be ordained?
- If you believe homosexual behavior is sinful, how do you function in a community where more and more people consider your view homophobic or hateful?
- How does your view on homosexual behavior affect your evangelistic efforts?
